USPA NEWS - British King Urged to Ask UK and the World to Support Syria & Turkey

Shazada Hayat President UICF (UK) and international community welfare campaigner is urging, with a humble request to the United Kingdom Monarch His Majesty King Charles III, to use his position of power and influence. This is to ask the British Government and the world leaders, to help and support the humanitarian efforts in Syria and Turkey, after the devastating earthquake.

Shazada Hayat said, His Majesty King Charles III, as well as being the head of the state of Britain, is also head of the 54 members of the commonwealth countries. The British King is the most influential personality in the world. The British monarch is also well known as the "King of Charitable Causes," for which His Majesty has devoted most of his life.

This week the world was shocked to learn and see the worst earthquake disaster, which brought with it devastating terror. One of the most heart wrenching scenes in the world, was when a mother was discovered underneath the rubble.

When the rubble was removed from around the dead mother, they found in her arms a live baby, which the mother died shielding. The many haunting images have shattered the hearts of the public around the world.

Shazada Hayat went on to say The unprecedented earthquake measured 7.5 on the Richter scale. This destructive earthquake unleashed, without notice or any mercy, killing over 10,000 people and the count continues to rise with destruction and devastation beyond comprehension. The catastrophic earthquake which started in the early hours of the morning when most of the victims were asleep.

Many who lost their lives for a split second may have thought it was just a nightmare. Sadly, those who did lose their lives will never wake up to know the stark truth and reality. The survivors in desperation and anger continue to frantically look for their loved ones, with the rescuers knowing their hopes of finding those alive is fading and diminishing by the minute. The many unaccountable and missing are thought to be under the tonnes of rubble left behind of the buildings they were living in, as their homes collapsed within seconds.

The King of Britain for all the reasons in this desperate hour of need, is urged to mobilise his Government, Europe, the Commonwealth and the rest of the world to provide the much-needed emergency assistance and help to Syria and Turkey, in this tragic and desperate situation faced by innocent defenceless people.

The emergency aid, food, medicine and equipment needed for this type of disaster relief effort must be dispatched as a matter of urgency. One of the most important factors to also take into consideration is the extreme cold weather, which is also adding to the suffering and misery to the homeless survivors who have lost everything. Every faith teaches us humanity is above all else. This is the most important crucial time for the world to unite as humans for humans in their hour of need. Let us all do whatever we can in this desperate time for these victims of the earthquake, said Shazada Hayat.
