The major weakness in the power of terrorism.

Another show of terrorism

USPA NEWS - The story unfolds from the city of Kerman, Iran. It's true that no country or group has claimed responsibility for the terrorist attack in Iran yet! But is this attack truly carried out by foreign terrorists?

"On January 3, 2024, the anniversary of the death of the prominent terrorist Qasem Soleimani, a number of supporters of the Terrorist Regime of Islamic Republic, were moving towards Soleimani's grave."

"Suddenly, the sound of two massive explosions is heard, and the Iranian regime begins spreading rumors. People are in shock and fear, and with each passing second, the number of casualties increases. According to some citizens in the city of Kerman, Iran, the regime had heavily fortified the area in the past five days, resembling a military government. How could this attack possibly be carried out by a terrorist group or another country?
And the most interesting point worth noting in this atrocity is that even Qasem Soleimani's family did not attend the ceremony, and none of the regime officials were present at the scene. In contrast to previous years when all regime leaders and Soleimani's family used to give speeches in the same location!

The terrorist organization, the Revolutionary Guards (IRGC), orchestrated this spectacle and eliminated lower-ranking individuals who were invited to Soleimani's grave with promises, threats, and money. The reasons are quite evident.

"The first significant reason is the regime's desperate need for international sympathy. The second reason is convincing less-educated individuals within Iran that without the rule of the clerics, Iran would lack security. The third reason is creating fear and terror among the Iranian people. The fourth reason is Khamenei's madness. The fifth reason is diverting the attention of the Iranian people from the extremely high inflation – did you know that only 18% of the Iranian population can afford to buy meat, chicken, and fish?
Another reason for this crime is the approaching anniversary of the attack on the Ukrainian plane, which has been proven to be launched by the Iranian regime and the terrorist group IRGC. In the early hours of January 8, 2020, IRGC terrorists fired a missile at the plane, taking the lives of many brilliant Iranian minds.

This pain persists among all Iranians, and the people are vehemently demanding justice. Since then, Iranians have created a powerful slogan in response: 'Our enemy is right here (in Iran).' The people are well aware that Khamenei is the head of these atrocities. Undoubtedly, they understand that today's attack was also carried out by the IRGC, given similar reasons and events, such as last year's attack by the IRGC terrorists in Shiraz on a religious site. Despite lacking direct evidence, the world, including the United States, Canada, and Europe, demanded accountability from the Iranian dictatorship in the PS-752 plane attack. Therefore, the mad regime, led by Ali Khamenei, who recently openly identifies himself as a god, was forced to confess on January 11, 2020, that the IRGC terrorists were responsible for the attack on the plane.

Dear reader, believe that your message of support has been received. Your support can bring a world to peace. Please do not remain silent and know that with the destruction of the terrorist Khamenei regime, we will have global tranquility.

IRCG IS BIG TERRORIST

Self-inflicted attacks by the IRGC once again prove the danger of this regime to all of humanity. The Iranian regime is highly perilous, and the people of Iran strive to convey to the world that these attacks are designed by the Iranian regime itself.

We must understand this significant danger, and it is strange that despite the clear interventions of the dictatorial Khamenei regime in the brutal attacks by the terrorist group Hamas, no one still declares Khamenei as the main culprit. The terrorist attack by Hamas on the sacred land of Israel is only possible due to a sick and insane ideology; otherwise, the world would gradually experience global security without Khamenei's influence. Don't forget that Israel had reached a stage of peace with its adversaries. How can sudden war erupt? Or is it a clearer sign when we see drones manufactured by the IRGC terrorists landing in Ukraine?

The Iranian regime is at its most severe point of weakness; they can no longer control the country. The prices of essential life commodities like milk, yogurt, fruits, nuts, and meat have skyrocketed strangely. Iranians are gradually turning to soy, and even affording that is challenging for a laborer. Every moment, the people's frustration grows, as Iranians themselves say, "Enough is enough.

I can't find a word beyond the greatest crime in history to write; henceforth, instead of the word "crime," one can use the name Ali Khamenei.

Let's not allow the Khamenei regime to portray itself as innocent, as this scenario is highly repetitive and Khamenei's corrupt ideologies have put the people of Iran in severe danger.
Air pollution in Iran has reached alarming levels, endangering human lives. Seeking justice for the victims of the Ukrainian plane by the people of Iran is considered a crime. The slightest criticism of Khamenei in the Iranian regime results in people being labeled as spies, religious apostates, and traitors, leading to imprisonment, torture, and execution.

In recent days, Iran has turned into an absurd prison where 86 million people, of which only 4% support the regime, are held hostage. Due to their desire for peace and awareness that the Khamenei regime would resort to firing missiles within Iran in the event of a complete revolution by the Iranian people, they fear taking to the streets.

The question arises: Shouldn't we deal with the Iranian regime and Ali Khamenei as we dealt with occupying terrorists? Did the people of Syria and Iraq have the strength and courage to take to the streets during the time of ISIS? However, with the solidarity of human-friendly countries like the United States and Europe, ISIS was eradicated.

The people of Iran currently have no power to confront the terrorist regime of Khamenei. They are extremely oppressed these days, to the point where they wish for clean air just to breathe easily.

Numerous new documentaries on YouTube reveal that Iran is heavily suffering from mazut burning by government-owned factories. I truly cannot comprehend the reason for the intense animosity of this tyrannical regime and Ali Khamenei towards the people of Iran!

In the end, I kindly request that if you also wish for global peace and tranquility, speak out for Iran, write, and advocate for an immediate call for regime change towards a democratic system. A free Iran is in the best interest of all humanity.

Let's start to finish Iranian Islamic Regime.

Where is Peace?
